Corporation of Calcutta.

No. L.A. 660.

TO THE MUNICIPAL COMMISSIONERS OF CALCUTTA.

WE have the honour to report that the Cash Accounts of the Corporation of Calcutta for the year ending 31st March 1889 have been audited on our behalf and have been found correct.

We have signed the printed statement of the Annual Accounts of the Corporation for the year 1888-89, in token of our having been satisfied with the audit exercised on our behalf, and we transmit that statement with this report with a formal certificate that the accounts set forth in that statement have been correctly extracted from the books kept in the Account Branch of the Office of the Corporation.

We have also to report that, owing to the careless and slovenly manner in which the ledger and abstracts have been kept during the year under report, the numbers of errors in the postings were considerable, thus entailing a large number of journal entries and unnecessarily increasing the work of the Chief Superintendent, who conducts audit on our behalf.

We have, &c.,

E. T. ATKINSON, Accountant-General, Bengal.

C. E. CRAWLEY, Examiner of Local Accounts.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Report of the Select Committee, together with the Bill as amended by them is, by order of the President, published for general information :—

REPORT OF THE SELECT COMMITTEE.

WE, the members appointed to consider the Bill "to consolidate the Calcutta and the Suburban Police Superannuation Funds," beg to submit the following report :—

2. We have struck out so much of section 2 as made the provisions of that section applicable to the clerk appointed to manage the Superannuation Fund.

3. We prefer, as being more accurate, the expression "member" to the words "Police Officer", as used in the Bill; as "Police Officers" is used in Act II (B.C.) of 1866 in anti-thesis to "men," and the Superannuation Fund applies as much to the men as to the officers. We have therefore substituted the one for the other wherever the latter occurs in section 2 and the subsequent sections of the Bill.

4. We have made a slight alteration in the wording of section 5 which requires no special comment.

5. We recommend that the Bill, as amended by us, be passed.

The following Report of the Select Committee together with the Bill as amended by them, is, by order of the President, published for general information:—

REPORT OF THE SELECT COMMITTEE.

WE, the undersigned Members of the Select Committee appointed to consider the Bill to amend and consolidate the law relating to the Port of Calcutta, and to the appointment of Commissioners for the said Port, beg to submit the following report:—

2. We have held in all 9 meetings, and have considered the sections of the Bill in detail. The first section in which we have made important alterations is section 5. We have increased the number of elected Commissioners to eight, so as to enable five to be elected by the Bengal Chamber of Commerce. Five Commissioners are needed to represent the five branches of the trade of Calcutta; at Bombay, five out of the thirteen Commissioners are elected by the Chamber of Commerce. We have omitted the provisions that not less than two of the Commissioners shall be natives of India, and that the Commissioner nominated by the body which best represents the interests of the Native mercantile community shall be a native of India, resident in Calcutta or Howrah. The Bill provides for two constituencies which may ordinarily be expected to elect Native gentlemen, viz., the one last referred to, and the Commissioners of the town of Calcutta, and should either of these bodies prefer to elect a European, we see no reason why the law need offer any objection to their doing so. In order not to increase the number of Commissioners beyond fifteen, we have reduced the Government nominees to five; it is understood that this number will suffice to enable the Local Government to nominate the Chairman of the Municipality, should it be thought desirable to appoint him, leaving the Municipal Commissioners free to elect one of their own number other than the Chairman.

3. We have omitted altogether section 18 of the Bill, which recites the loans due to the Secretary of State for India in Council, and also the Fourth Schedule referred to in that section. As indicated in the letter of the Government of India, No. 781 of the 28th March last, there seems to be no necessity for enumerating these loans in an Act of the Legislature.

4. In section 36 we have omitted the words which include in the works to be constructed and carried out by the Commissioners, the building of steam-vessels "for the purpose of towing vessels into, out of, in or upon the river Hughli." It was not intended that the Commissioners should be authorised to enter into competition with the tug service of the Hughli.

5. At the end of Part III we have introduced new sections regulating the valuation of Port Trust property for the purposes of municipal rating. On a recent reference made to the Advocate-General, on the subject of a municipal valuation of Dock property, he advised that, "having regard to the peculiar nature of the holding, I am of opinion that the mode of assessment provided by Act II, 1888, seems scarcely applicable to the present case, and I think it would be expedient to obtain a short Act for the assessment of the Docks." We are of opinion that the consolidation of the Port Trust Law offers a suitable opportunity for the legislation recommended by the Hon'ble the Advocate-General, and that it might be advantageously extended to the whole of the Port Trust property; and for this we have a precedent in the case of Bombay. The first principle accepted at Bombay is to leave the decision of the amount payable to the Governor in Council. This we think it advisable to adopt in Calcutta, so as to save both parties from the expenses and delays of litigation. Following, therefore, in other respects the general procedure of the Calcutta Municipal Consolidation Act, 1888, we propose to allow in section 63 a reference to the Local Government, in lieu of an appeal to the Small Cause Court.

6. We have also as at Bombay allowed a reduction of ten per cent. on the amount payable by an ordinary owner in consideration of the special circumstances of Port Trust property. As regards the principle of valuation, we have adhered to that laid down in the Calcutta

Municipal Consolidation Act, 1864, which we consider specially applicable to the case of property held by a public body, not for the purpose of gaining the maximum profits, but bound so to adjust its charges as to merely provide interest on the original outlay.

7. We have also added two sections regarding the roads belonging to the Port Trust. Section 67 provides that the Commissioners may require the Corporation of Calcutta to take over any of their roads and convert them into public streets; in that event they will be for all practical purposes public streets of the town, maintained and lighted from Municipal Funds, subject only to the proviso that should the Corporation at any time stop or discontinue them, which will require the assent of the Port Commissioners, the proprietary right shall revert to the Trust. Section 68 provides for the case in which the Port Trust are unwilling to part with the control of roads within their property, though practically public roads. In this case, we provide that they may require the Corporation to light, cleanse and water these roads. As the Commissioners pay water, sewage and lighting rates, this seems a perfectly fair provision. We have not added the obligation of maintenance, partly because the bulk of the wear and tear of such roads must be due to the work of the the port, and therefore legitimately falls on trade rather than on the general tax-payer; and partly because to require one body to repair and keep in order roads for the use of another body, must almost inevitably result in friction and misunderstandings.

8. We have altered sections 60 to 62 regulating the submission of an annual budget estimate to Government, so as to make it obligatory on the Commissioners to submit such estimates before the close of the preceding year. On the other hand, we have extended the period within which the Local Government may disallow such estimate or any portion thereof from two months to three; we understand that three months will be sufficient to enable the Local Government to deal with the estimate.

9. We have omitted the second clause of section 70 requiring the Vice-Chairman to advertise for ten days beforehand the audit and examination of accounts under the Act. The accounts are practically being audited and examined throughout the year, and the clause can serve no useful purpose.

10. We have modified section 78 by omitting the provision that the number of bathing ghāts which the Government might call on the Commissioners to reserve in lieu of ghāts closed by them should "not exceed in number those that may be removed;" in some cases it might be right to reserve a large number of small ghāts in place of a smaller number of large ones.

11. Section 76 has received special attention. By this section the Commissioners may, if the limits of the port are extended, remove any private wharf, jetty, or other work constructed without the assent of the Local Government without making any compensation therefor to the owner. It was pressed upon our consideration that this was altogether unjust, and that the payment of compensation ought to be made legally obligatory on the Commissioners. Cases were referred to in which this section was alleged to have caused injustice in the past, and to be likely to cause it in the future. On the other hand, it was urged that land below high-water-mark undoubtedly belongs to the Government; that any person who puts up any work within such limits is in law a trespasser, and might be called upon summarily to remove it. If therefore any such work is found to be in existence when the land is included in the port, no legal claim for compensation can arise.

The majority of us are of opinion that this correctly describes the legal situation, and we find that the section has been in existence since 1870, and was then justified on the same grounds as above stated. At the same time cases may often arise in which compensation ought under all the circumstances to be allowed. We have therefore given the Local Government power to direct the payment of such sum by way of compensation as under the circumstances may seem to it fair and equitable.

12. Sections 92 to 98 refer to the scales of tolls, rates and charges. We have added to these sections words expressly authorizing the Commissioners to frame a scale of charges for the conveyance of goods by their tramway.

We have also deemed it necessary to increase the powers of the Local Government, so as to empower it not only, as at present, to sanction each scale at the time when it is framed, but also from time to time to require the Commissioners to cancel or modify any sanctioned scale should circumstances render this desirable.

13. In section 102 we have substituted the words "two clear working days" for "forty-eight hours" as the period within which goods must be removed from the premises of the Commissioners.

14. We have in many cases substituted the words "Commissioners in meeting" for "Commissioners," as otherwise the powers conveyed by those sections could, under section 48, be exercised by the Chairman or Vice-Chairman independently.

15. We recommend that the Bill, as now amended, be passed.

CALCUTTA;
The 18th December, 1889.

MINUTE OF DISSENT BY THE HON'BLE C. H. MOORE.

I have to record my objection to section 76 (section 85 in revised Bill) and my opinion that it should be removed, or altered, to reverse its present tenor. I quote the section in extenso, and then state my various objections to it—

"85. In case any wharf, quay, stage, jetty, pier, erection, or mooring may have been, without the assent of the Local Government, made, erected, or fixed below high-water—mark without the limits for the time being of the port, and thereafter the limits of the port shall be extended so as to include the place in which such wharf, quay, stage, jetty, pier, erection, or mooring shall have been made, erected, or fixed, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to remove, fill up, or destroy such wharf, quay, stage, jetty, pier, erection, or mooring, without making any compensation therefor:

Provided that it shall be lawful for the Local Government to direct the payment of such sum (if any) as under the circumstances may seem to it fair and equitable."

2. In 1886, by a stroke of the pen the port was extended to Hudge-Budge, a distance of fifteen miles from its previous limits, which immediately brought under the powers of this section four factories. It is not at all impossible that some day it may be extended similarly in an opposite direction which would include within its limits Battrackpore and Serampore, and bring under this section ten further factories and presses. I believe that, almost without exception, not one of these factories obtained the sanction of the Local Government to erect the jetties they possess over which the whole of their trade is conducted; and therefore nearly all of them would be liable were the port extended to include them in its limits to the summary confiscation of such jetties by the Port Commissioners without any payment for the loss it would involve. I desire to protect them from this possibility which I should regard as rank injustice, and to stay the law from continuing to the Port Commissioners the power to inflict such an injury on trade.

3. None of the persons who have so erected jetties seem to have been aware of any necessity to obtain Government sanction, in stating which in Select Committee I was met with the retort that every individual is supposed to know the law. Of this I am aware, but I am not alive to the knowledge that even those unfortunate gentlemen, John Doe and Richard Roe who were never free from it, were supposed to keep their eyes open and their senses on the alert for pitfalls prepared for them by the law. This section, as and where it stands, seems to me a distinct pitfall, because no private individual would dream of searching an Act to appoint Commissioners for making Improvements in the Port of Calcutta which is the title of Act V of 1870, to ascertain his legal obligations in connection with land far removed from the port, and that has less to do with it than the Ochterlony monument. The statistics given above shew a number of individuals who fell into the pitfall.

4. In putting this point I was met with the reply that, under the common law of the land, jetties so erected were acts of trespass, as the foreshore is Crown property; and that they could be summarily confiscated under the Common Law. Having no desire to question the Common Law in consideration of a Port Bill, I was satisfied with the equity of the suggestion herein made that in case of the Port Commissioners desiring to confiscate what they might deem a trespassing jetty, the matter could be fought out in the High Court, which administers the law; and I pointed out that as Government was thus amply protected, the section could be removed from this Bill where it was simply an excrescence. This was merely met by insistence on the necessity of including the section, which engenders suspicion that the Common Law may not have so certain a ring on the foreshore question as stated, or that its possible protection of individuals was feared; and a close examination from this point of view of the possible ramifications of the section seems to me to reveal that it confers power to forestall a decision from the civil courts and to ride rough-shod, if the Local Government and Port Commissioners are so disposed, over the rights of individuals as I will now try to shew.

5. In the paragraph regarding this section in the Report of the Select Committee it is laid down that, land below high-water—mark undoubtedly belongs to Government; but even if this is accurate so far as it goes, it does not, I think, state the whole case, because it omits allusion to instances where Government may have parted with its foreshore rights to individuals, which I understand there is nothing in the Indian Law to prevent its doing.

6. There seems to be evidence to shew that it has done so in instances of land upon the banks of the Hooghly where factories are built; for in one instance (if not more) I can, I believe, be shewn that under a duly authorised revenue settlement, land rent was paid to Government down to lowest low-water—mark; which is a distinct resignation by Government of its rights in that fore-shore for value received. In another instance the title deeds of a factory include a special clause by which the zemindar grants to it the full use of the foreshore of the land leased from him, and as these title deeds were declared to be in order by first class Solicitors, it is at least prima facie evidence that the power of the zemindar to grant such rights had been examined and found to exist; which here again would imply that Crown rights (if existent) had been at some time voluntarily resigned. Where, therefore, holders of land can prove such titles as these to the foreshore, I presume nobody can prohibit their using it for erection of jetties, removable only under the Land Acquisition Act, which clearly admits the principle ignored in this section that, invasion of private property for public purposes is only permissible on payment of adequate compensation. This postulate, however, is subjected to the rudest treatment in the section complained of; for, as I understand it, it enables the Port Commissioners (if backed by Government) to ignore foreshore or other rights, even if proved to exist, to be deaf to any argument on the subject, to possibly avoid a decision from the Courts, and in connection with this particular Bill, to arbitrarily institute a Cession edict that the question shall be decided by the fact of Government consent, which is sufficiently comprehensive to include jetties at factories in existence years before Act V of 1870 was passed; regardless of prescriptive rights acquired by long usage. In connection with this last point, I may fitly comment here on a change in the wording of the present section from the corresponding section in Act V. In the old section, the wording was as follows:—

"In case any wharf, dock, quay, jetty, pier, erection, or mooring shall, without the consent in writing of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, be fixed, excavated, erected, or built below high-water-mark without the limits for the time being of the port, &c., &c., &c."

7. In the present section the sense is changed by conversion of the words "shall be" into "may have been." It is clear to me that in the original section the words "shall be" were designedly used to refer to the future only, and so by inference to exclude the past; and this view is strengthened by knowledge of the fact that Mr. Ashley Eden, the Member in charge of the Bill, originally drafted the section to refer to any work erected within one mile of the then limits of the port, demonstrating the intention of a departure from the date of the new Act then being passed, i.e., that the limits of the port being demarcated, and new legislation regarding it effected, thereafter these erections must not be made near those limits without Government consent. (The words "within one mile of the port" subsequently dropped out on a motion made in Council with extraordinary fatuity by an unofficial member, blind to what it might involve; and Government cannot be blamed for accepting so great an enhancement to their powers suggested from such a source.)

8. The section now substituted not only repeals the old section, but the words "may have been" give its substance retrospective effect to all time as opposed to the limitation which was, I maintain, before confined to events occurring after the passing of the Act, i.e., it extends the powers of the section to jetties built prior to 1870, which in my opinion the old Act specially protected.

9. In regard to jetties built subsequent to 1870 without Government sanction by persons who can claim no foreshore or other rights, I urge that they fell into the pitfall; but as they are pursuing useful trade, and have caused no obstruction to the navigation of the river, and Government having never raised objection to has practically condoned their trespass (if so it be), the law I consider should make compensation obligatory, and not optional, should these jetties ever be taken up under this Act.

10. To effect this, it is only necessary to alter the wording of the section in some such way as this, viz., that compensation based on the principles of the Land Acquisition Act shall in all cases be given except where it can be shown that the work erected has been objected to as a wilful trespass, or is an obstruction to navigation, in which last cases compensation would be made optional.

11. I am told that where compensation is manifestly equitable it is certain to be given under the proviso now added to the section, by which power is given to the Local Government to give such sum as it may think fit; but in this I can find no such positive security for the due protection of the individual when in conflict with a Corporation as I consider is essential in a section which deliberately delegates Crown powers to the Corporation, thereby suggesting an intention to give it a free hand to the possible peril of the individual.

12. Corporations are proverbially high-handed and callous; and though I may have the fullest belief that the present Government might safely be trusted to see that justice was done, it is not given us to peep into futurity to criticise the chances of like treatment under some different régime, and it might occur in the future (for which there is a precedent in the past) that compensation under any such circumstances as above set forth was regarded as totally unmerited; or, that the provincial money-bags were so depleted that payment might be withheld on the ground of inability to afford it, however complete the recognition that it ought to be made.

13. I feel very keenly my disadvantage in discussing this question in the interests of those concerned from being unversed in the law, and the risk I run in speaking my mind freely concerning points surrounded by legal technicalities of a crushing rejoinder from some one of the high legal authorities in the Council, by the possible exhibition on my part of ignorance of some purely elementary legal principle; also, that I may be charged with making too much of the matter by writing at such length, as the chances of confiscation of valuable jetties under an extension of the port are remote; but I feel I must not fear but face the consequences of the risk, trusting to be treated tenderly, and that I cannot curtail my remarks without omitting a portion of the story.

14. Though the section is small the principle involved is large, and affecting, as it some day may do, the trade-interests of industries representing a capital value of over one hundred lacs of rupees, it seems to me essential that those industries should, before the Bill is passed, be made fully aware of their danger, which whether near or remote exists; as it is evident they are ignorant of it now, and always have been, although the section first appeared on the Statute Book in the year 1870.

Provided that the Commissioners shall not be bound to land, ship, or move any single article or package exceeding thirty tons or twenty hundred-weight in weight, except at such special charge as may be agreed on in respect of such article or package.

(1) Whenever any goods shall be landed by the Commissioners from any vessel under the powers by this Act conferred on them, they shall, if thereunto required, give to the person in charge of such vessel a receipt in the form or to the effect prescribed in the Third Schedule: and may in any such receipt include all goods landed from such vessel during one day.

(2) And no person to whom such receipt shall have been so given, nor the master nor owner of the vessel from which the goods in respect of which such receipt shall be given may have been landed, shall be liable for any loss or damage to such goods which may occur after they shall have been so landed.

91. When any dock, wharf, quay, stage, jetty, or pier erected under the provisions of this Act shall have been made and completed, together with sufficient warehouses, sheds, cranes and moorings for landing and shipment, or for landing or for shipment, of goods from and upon sea-going vessels, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the sanction of the Local Government by a notification published in three consecutive numbers of the Calcutta Gazette, to declare that such dock, wharf, quay, stage, jetty, or pier is ready for receiving, landing and shipment, or for landing or for shipment, of goods, from and upon sea-going vessels.

92. From and after such notification and publication it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to require the Conservator of the Port, or other person exercising the rights, powers and authorities of the Conservator of the Port, from time to time, when there shall be room at such dock, wharf, quay, stage, jetty, or pier, to order to come alongside of such dock, wharf, quay, stage, jetty, or pier, for the purpose of being laden or unloaded by the Commissioners, any sea-going vessel which shall or have commenced to discharge goods, or which, being about to take in goods, shall not have commenced to take in goods.

93. And if after such order of the Conservator of the Port or other person aforesaid, the owner or master of any such vessel shall either take in or discharge goods, save and except at such dock, wharf, quay, stage, jetty, or pier to which such vessel shall have been so ordered, the owner thereof, or, in case he shall not be in Calcutta, the master thereof, shall be liable to a penalty of one hundred rupees for each day that he shall land or ship, or attempt to land or ship, any goods in contravention of such order.

(2) And by an order in like manner published, to alter, vary, or revoke any such order.

95. Whoever shall, after such order has been so published as aforesaid, land or ship, or attempt to land or ship, any goods in contravention of such order, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees for every day that he shall so land or ship any goods in contravention of the said order.

Provided that notwithstanding anything in this or in sections ninety-one, ninety-two, and ninety-three contained, it shall be lawful for the Local Government by notification in the Calcutta Gazette, from time to time, if it shall so think fit, to declare that certain specified vessels or classes of vessels shall be permitted to discharge or ship goods, or that certain specified goods or classes of goods shall be permitted to be landed or shipped elsewhere, and at such part of the Port of Calcutta, and for such time and on such conditions, as it may think fit.

96. (1) When any dock, wharf, quay, stage, jetty, or pier for receiving, landing, or shipment of goods, from vessels (not being sea-going vessels) shall have been made and completed with all proper appliances in that behalf, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners in meeting, with the sanction of the Local Government, by an order published in three consecutive numbers of the Calcutta Gazette, to declare that such dock, wharf, quay, stage, jetty, or pier is ready for receiving landing, or shipment of goods from vessels (not being sea-going vessels); and in the same way to order that within certain prescribed limits to be therein specified in that behalf, it shall not be lawful, without the express sanction of the Commissioners, to land or ship any goods out of, or into, any vessel not being a sea-going vessel of any class specified in such order, except at such dock, wharf, quay, stage, jetty, or pier.

(2) And by an order in like manner published, to alter, vary, or revoke any such order.

Any person guilty of any breach of the provisions of this section shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees for every such breach.

99. The Commissioners may, by notice in writing, order the master, owner, or agent of any vessel to remove such vessel from any dock, wharf, quay, stage, jetty, or pier belonging to the Commissioners.

100. Unless such vessel shall be removed therefrom within thirty-six hours after service of such notice on the officer in charge of such vessel, or the master, owner, or agent thereof, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to charge in respect of such vessel for the use by such vessel of such dock, wharf, quay, stage, jetty, or pier, such sum not exceeding five hundred rupees for each day of twenty-four hours or portion of such day after the expiry of such thirty-six hours during which such vessel shall remain at such dock, wharf, quay, stage, jetty, or pier as to the Commissioners shall seem fit.

PART IX.—Of Levying Tolls and Rates.

101. The Commissioners shall frame a scale of tolls, dues, rates and charges for the landing and shipment of goods from and into sea-going vessels at the docks, wharves, quays, stages, jetties and piers, belonging to the Commissioners, and for the use thereof by such vessels, and for the storing and keeping of any goods stored in any premises belonging to them, and for the removal of goods, and for the use of any moorings laid down or acquired by the Commissioners, and for the towage of vessels by the steam-vessels of the Commissioners in the port.

102. The Commissioners shall also frame a scale of tolls, dues, rates and charges for the landing and shipment of goods into and out of any vessel (not being a sea-going vessel); and also a scale of tolls for the use of the said docks, wharves, quays, moorings, stages, jetties, and piers by any such vessel, in case the Commissioners shall permit the goods to be landed or shipped by other than their own officers and servants.

103. The Commissioners shall also frame a scale of charges for any services to be performed by the Commissioners or their servants in respect of any vessel or goods, or for the conveyance of goods by their tramways, or for the use of any works or appliances to be provided by the Commissioners.

104. The Commissioners shall also frame a scale of tolls, dues, annual or other, to be paid by the owners of any vessels plying for hire, whether regularly or occasionally within, or partly within and partly without, the limits of the port:

Provided that no such tolls shall be chargeable in respect of vessels which are liable to pay port dues under the provisions of Schedule I of the Indian Ports Act, 1859.

105. (1) Such scales of tolls, dues, rates and charges shall be adopted by the Commissioners in meeting, and shall be submitted to the Local Government; and after receiving its approval, shall be published by the Commissioners in the Calcutta Gazette; and may from time to time, subject to the like approval and publication, be in like manner altered.

(2) It shall also be competent to the Local Government at any time to cancel any of the scales framed under sections one hundred and one to one hundred and four (both inclusive), or to call upon the Commissioners to modify any portion of such scales; and thereupon the Commissioners in meeting shall modify such scales accordingly.

106. If, on the preparation of the estimate of any year, it shall appear that the estimated income of the Commissioners for such year, after deducting therefrom the estimated expenditure of such year to be incurred under this Act, will be insufficient for the payment of the sums which, under the provisions of this Act, will be payable during such year to the Secretary of State for India in Council, and to the holders of debentures under this Act or any enactment hereby repealed; or if at any time in the course of a year it may appear that the actual income of such portion of the year as may have then elapsed and the estimated income of the residue of such year, after deducting therefrom the actual expenditure of such past portion and the estimated expenditure of such residue, will be so insufficient, then and in every such case the Commissioners shall, upon the requisition of the Local Government, from time to time, and to the extent requisite in every case, charge upon all goods landed from or shipped into any vessel lying or being within the limits of the port, whether such goods shall or shall not be so landed or shipped at any dock, wharf, quay, stage, jetty, or pier belonging to the Commissioners, such tolls, dues, rates, and charges, in addition to or other than those prescribed by any scale of tolls, dues, rates, and charges for the time being in force under the provisions of sections one hundred and one to one hundred and five (both inclusive) as will, when added to the said income of the year, suffice as nearly as may be for the payment of the said sums in full.

107. Such tolls, dues, rates and charges shall be fixed and adopted in accordance with a resolution passed by the Commissioners at a meeting, and shall be submitted to the Local Government; and if the same shall be approved by it, shall be published in the Calcutta Gazette, and shall forthwith come into operation and remain in operation until altered or revoked by the Commissioners in meeting with the sanction of the Local Government, and shall be leviable and recoverable in like manner as any other tolls, dues, rates and charges payable under this Act.

108. (1) In case the Commissioners shall, for fifteen days after the receipt by them of any such requisition from the Local Government, neglect or refuse to comply with the same, one hundred and six is mentioned, neglect or refuse to charge such tolls, dues, rates and charges, it shall be lawful for the Local Government, by an order published in the Calcutta Gazette, to charge such tolls, dues, rates and charges.

(2) And the tolls, dues, rates and charges mentioned in such order shall have such and the same effect as if they had been fixed and adopted by the Commissioners in meeting, and approved by the Local Government, and published in the Calcutta Gazette, as in section one hundred and seven is mentioned.

109. (1) For the amount of all tolls, dues, rates and charges, duly leviable under this Act in respect of any goods, the Commissioners shall have a lien on such goods, and shall be entitled to seize and detain the same until such tolls, dues, rates and charges are fully paid.

(2) Toll, dues, rates and charges in respect of goods to be landed shall become payable immediately on the landing of the goods.

(3) Toll, dues, rates and charges in respect of goods to be removed from the premises of the Commissioners, or to be shipped for export, shall be payable before the goods are removed or shipped.

(4) The lien for such tolls, dues, rates and charges shall have priority over all other liens and claims, except for general average, for the ship-owner's lien for freight upon the said goods where such lien exists and has been preserved in the manner hereinafter provided, for primage, and for money payable to Her Majesty or the Secretary of State for India in Council under any law for the time being in force:

Provided that nothing in this Act shall affect any power or authority vested in the Chief Officer of Customs under any law for the time being in force.

110. The Commissioners shall not be liable for any damage which may be sustained through any cause not arising from negligence on the part of the Commissioners, to any goods whether landed for import or received for export during such time as the said goods remain in the possession or under the control of the Commissioners.

111. (1) The Commissioners shall immediately upon the landing of any goods take charge thereof, and store such as are liable to suffer from exposure, in any shed or warehouse belonging to the Commissioners.

(2) If any owner, without any default on the part of the Commissioners, fail to remove any goods from the premises of the Commissioners within two clear working days from the time of landing, such goods shall remain on the premises at the sole risk and expense of the owner.

112. (1) Whenever the owner of any goods fails to remove the same within the time specified in the last preceding section, the Commissioners shall give notice to the consignee or owner of such goods, if his address be known by letter sent by post to such address or left thereat, that all liability which the Commissioners may have hitherto incurred in respect of such goods has ceased.

(2) And shall also publish in one or more daily newspapers notice of the expiry of such liability, and shall specify therein the numbers, marks and descriptions of such goods, so far as the same may appear.

113. In case the said goods shall be removed to the public warehouses, then the consignee or owner shall be liable for the charges for warehousing goods in such public warehouses; and the goods shall remain subject to all liens to which they would have been liable if they had remained in the possession of the Commissioners, and to the power of sale hereinafter given.

114. (1) If the master or owner of any vessel, or his agents at or before the time of landing from such vessel any goods at any dock, wharf, quay, stage, jetty, or pier belonging to the Commissioners, shall give to the Commissioners notice in writing that such goods are to remain subject to a lien for freight or other charges payable to the ship-owner to an amount to be mentioned in such notice, such goods shall continue liable to the same lien (if any) for such charges as they were subject to before the landing thereof.

(2) Such goods shall be retained either in the warehouses and sheds of the Commissioners, or, with the consent of the Chief Officer of Customs, in the public warehouses, at the risk and expense of the owners of the goods, until the lien is discharged as hereinafter mentioned.

115. Upon the production to the officer of the Commissioners in that behalf of a document purporting to be a receipt for the amount claimed as due, or a release of freight from the person by or on whose behalf such notice shall have been given, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to permit such goods to be removed without regard to such lien:

Provided they shall have used reasonable care in respect to the authenticity of such document.

116. If the tolls, dues, rates and charges payable to the Commissioners in respect of any goods under this Act are not paid, and if the lien of the ship-owner for freight where such notice as aforesaid has been given is not discharged, the Commissioners may, and in the latter event if required by or on behalf of the person claiming such lien for freight shall, at the expiration of two months from the time when the goods were placed in their custody or if the goods are of a perishable nature in such earlier period, being not less than twenty-four hours after the landing of the goods as they shall think fit, sell by public auction the said goods, or so much as may be necessary to satisfy the amounts hereinafter directed to be paid out of the produce of such sale.

117. (1) Before making such sale, ten days notice of the same shall be given by publication thereof in the Calcutta Gazette unless the goods are of so perishable a nature in the opinion of the officer of the Commissioners in that behalf to render immediate sale necessary or advisable; in which event such notice shall be given as the urgency of the case admits of.

(2) If the address of the owner of the goods has been stated on the manifest of the goods, or on any of the documents which have come into the hands of the Commissioners, or as otherwise known, notice shall also be given to the owner of the goods by letter delivered at such address or sent by the post; but the title of a bona fide purchaser of such goods shall not be invalidated by reason of the omission to send the notice hereinbefore mentioned, nor shall any such purchaser be bound to inquire whether such notice has been sent.

118. (1) In every case of any such sale as aforesaid, the moneys received from the sale shall be applied as follows:—

(a) in payment of the expenses of the sale;
(b) in payment according to their respective priorities of the liens and claims excepted in section one hundred and nine from the priority of the liens of the Commissioners for tolls, rates, and dues; and
(c) in payment of the tolls, charges, and expenses of landing, removing, storing or warehousing the same; and of all other charges due to the Commissioners under this Act in respect thereof.

(2) The surplus, if any, shall be paid to the importer, owner, or consignee of the goods, or to his agent, on his applying for the same.

Provided that such application be made within one year from the sale of the goods, or good reason be shown why such application was not so made to the satisfaction of the Commissioners; and in case such application shall not be so made, nor reason shown, such surplus shall be held by the Commissioners upon trust for the purposes of this Act.

119. If the master of any vessel in respect of which any tolls, dues, rates, penalties, or charges shall be payable under this Act, or any rules or orders made in pursuance thereof, shall refuse or neglect to pay the same or any part thereof on demand, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to apply to the Collector of Customs of the Port of Calcutta, and such Collector shall detain or arrest of his own authority such vessel, and the tackle, apparel, and furniture belonging thereto, or any part thereof, and detain the same until the amount due to the Commissioners shall be paid; and in case any part of the said tolls, dues, rates, penalties or charges, or of the costs of the distress or arrestment, or of the keeping of the same, shall remain unpaid for the space of five days next after any such distress or arrestment shall have been so made, the Collector of Customs may cause the vessel or other thing so detained or arrested to be sold, and with the proceeds of such sale may satisfy such tolls, dues, rates, penalties or charges and costs, including the costs of sale remaining unpaid; rendering the surplus (if any) to the master of such vessel on demand.

120. If the Commissioners shall give to the officer of Government, whose duty it shall be to grant the port clearance of any vessel, notice stating that an amount therein specified is due in respect of tolls, dues, rates, or charges, or penalties chargeable under this Act, or any bye-laws, rules, or orders made in pursuance thereof against such vessel, or the owner or master of such vessel in respect thereof, or against or in respect of any goods on board such vessel, such officer shall not grant such port clearance until the amount so chargeable shall have been paid.

CHAPTER V.

(2) And all the powers, authorities, and restrictions contained in this Act in respect of the works by this Act authorized shall apply to the works which may be executed by the Commissioners as such Conservators, to the sanction thereof, the estimates therefor, and the expenditure thereunder.
